COMPANY PROFILE

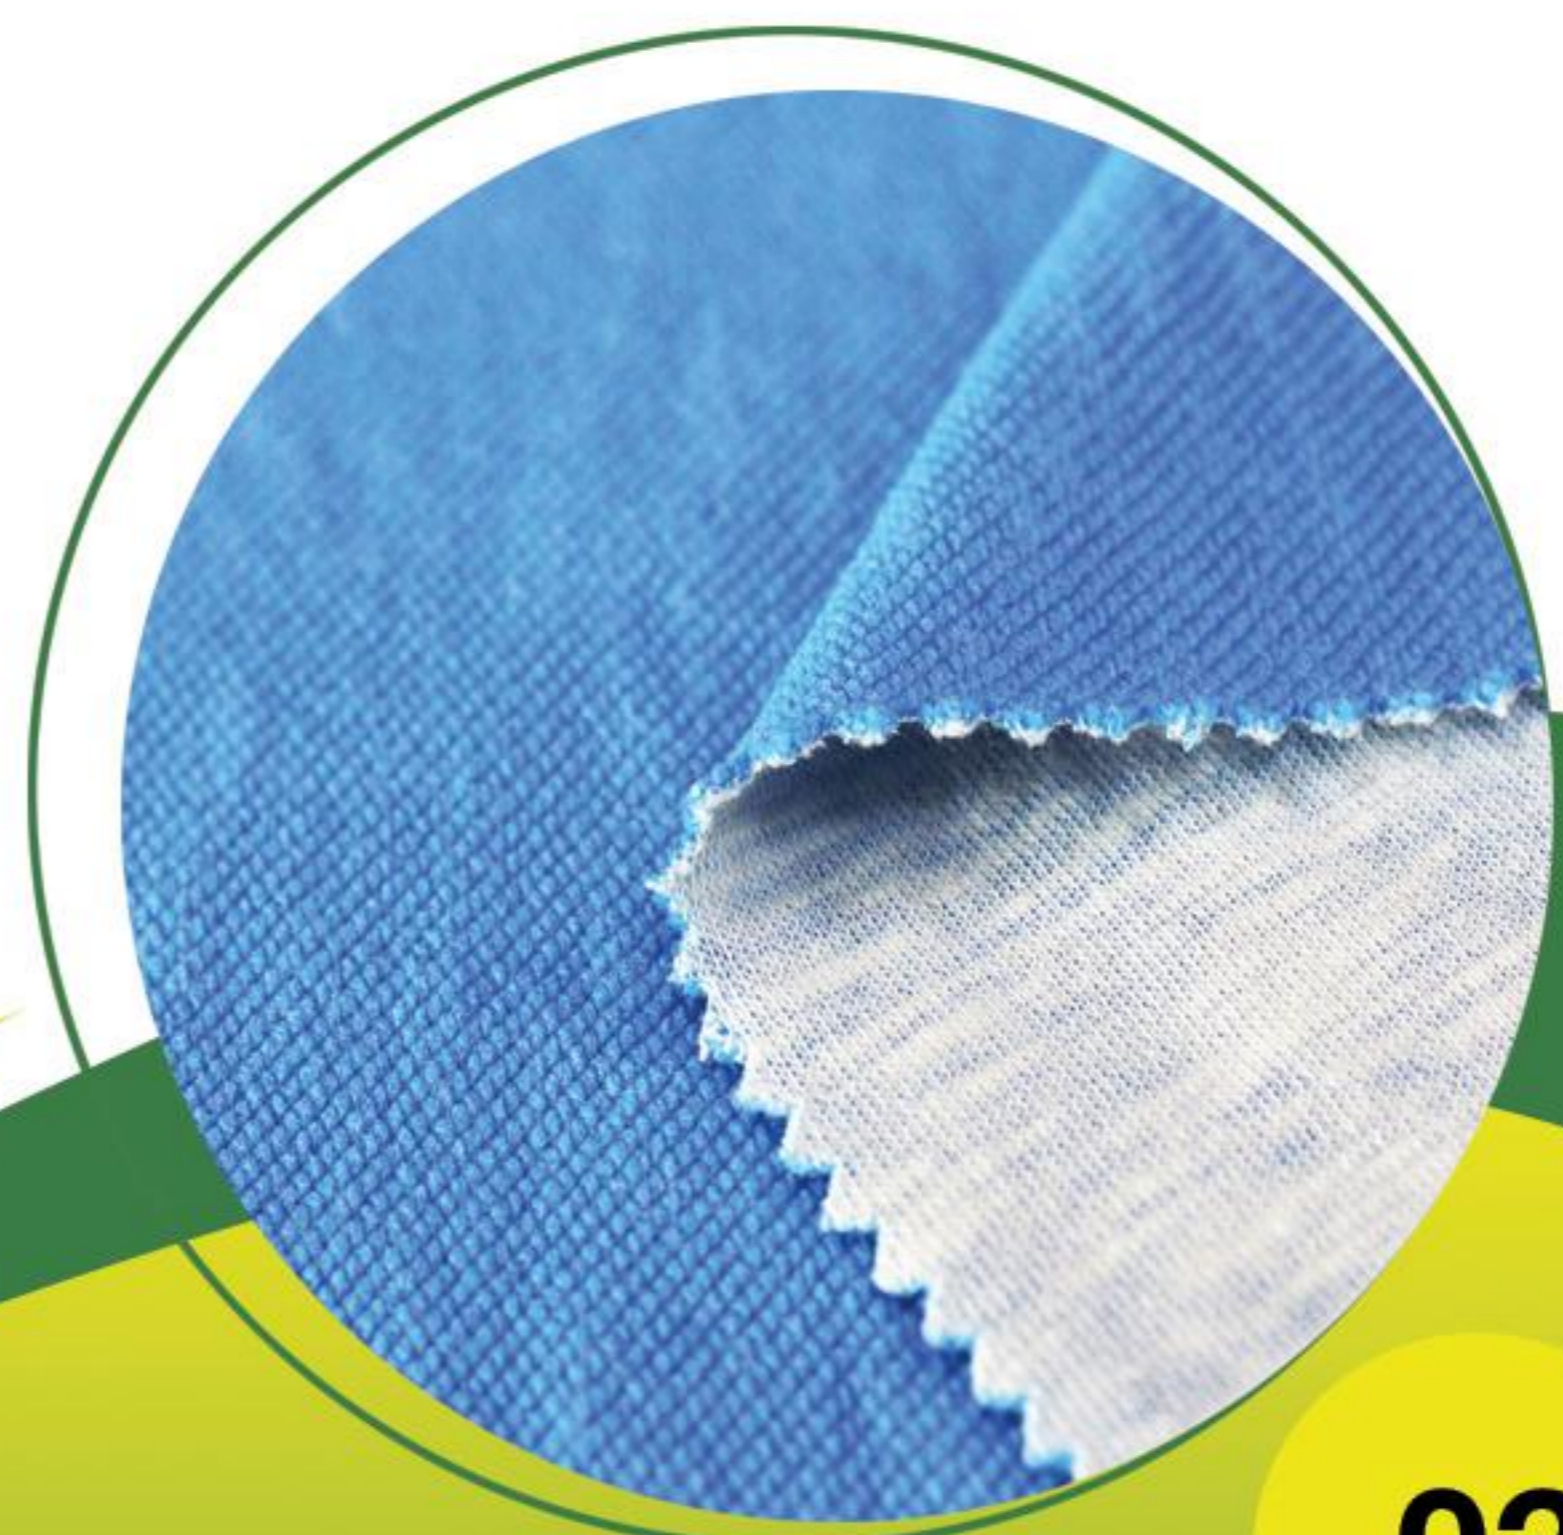

Company Overview

Ava Textile Trading Company has expanded its activities to produce and supply various types of interwoven and knitted textiles in an international market. Producing and ordering various textiles in different production complexes, Ava has created an extensive distribution network and provided its products to esteemed consumers at a very reasonable price, targeting all intermediaries. Ava's creative and young textile team identifies all customer needs regarding fashion and design and produces world-class products using state-of-the-art equipment, advanced textile machines, and high-quality fabrics.

Business Description

Among the fabrics available in the market, interwoven fabrics have the highest demand due to its high-quality material and strength, as well as its various designs and colors. The fabric of these textiles is made of yarn and cotton fibers, which are very cool and delicate and are used for hospital clothes, sheets, pillows, and many other uses. In fact, interwoven fabrics are considered as raw fabrics. The quality and price, being highest and most reasonable, give an opportunity for our interwoven fabrics to have be the most demanded.

One of the best fabrics that are highly popular and is used in different countries, industries, and consumed by people is knitted fabric. Knitted fabric (tricot) is woven from one type of yarn or a combination of two or more different yarns. Due to the quality and the price, productions are exported to many countries including Iraq, Afghanistan, Turkmenistan, Pakistan, Turkey, etc. Our knitted fabric is produced in different types such as viscose knitted fabric, cotton knitted fabric, polyester knitted fabric, etc.
